Scott D. Gilbert, Managing Director of Reneo LLC, Elected to Board of American Security Project

07.24.15

Washington, D.C., July 24, 2015 – Scott D. Gilbert, the Founder and Managing Director of Reneo, LLC, an international strategic business consultancy, has been named to the board of directors of the American Security Project (ASP).

Gilbert is the attorney who helped secure the December 2014 release of American aid worker Alan Gross from a Cuban prison, the event that facilitated a major breakthrough in U.S.-Cuba diplomatic relations. He brings more than three decades of experience as a legal consultant and expert negotiator to the ASP board.

Gilbert joins a distinguished array of foreign policy, national security, and global business experts on the ASP board. ASP recently unveiled plans to launch an international business council aimed at promoting a greater U.S. presence in international markets.

“I’m honored to serve on the board of such a prestigious and important organization,” Gilbert said. “I look forward to the challenge of helping ASP strengthen its reach and stature.”

Stephen A. Cheney, ASP CEO said, “Scott Gilbert has demonstrated an incredible passion and dedication to America’s national security. As can be seen in his efforts to free Alan Gross from Cuba, he has worked tirelessly to foster our nation’s diplomacy abroad. We are thrilled to have his leadership and expertise added to our board.”
